

Blues' new hope

W A L T H A M S T O W

Avenue'sfeat in holding runaway leaders Enfield to a draw at Southbury Road on Tuesday night breathes new hope into the lungs of Enfield's main challengers for the Rothmans Isthmian League Division One title, namely Dagenham and Wycombe Wanderers.

Enfield dropped two points in that mid-week match and their two main challengers are now just eight points behind. Dagenham, whose superior goal average gives them second place, have two games in hand on the leaders, but Wycombe are still very much in the hunt.

To remain there they will need a maximum three points from tomorrow's game with Leytonstone at Loakes Park.

Leytonstone have gone downhill since last season, largely due to the number of serious injuries they have received. Experienced striker John Brookes was out for a month after injuring a knee, while defender John Smith missed the early part of the season with a broken leg.
